Monday, November 5, 2012

Milton Sports Centre (Banquet Room) – 605 Santa Maria Blvd, Milton

Session 1: 3:00 pm to 5:00pm

Session 2: 6:30 pm to 8:30pm

Participants at the Stakeholders' World Café Workshop will be talking about active transportation programs and initiatives in the Region as well as working towards building a Regional walking and cycling network. The format will be breakout groups focused on key topics with an opportunity for participants to brainstorm the issues with others.

Limited space! RSVP early. Send an email with the session no. you wish to attend to: Marianne Radue at marianne.radue@ibigroup.com

The workshop host will strive to include a wide range of people and agencies from across the Region. In your email, please note the municipality where you work or reside or the agency that you will represent.

Halton ACTIVE Transportation Master Plan

Halton Region is initiating an Active Transportation Master Plan to develop the strategy, infrastructure, initiatives and programs to promote non-motorized travel throughout the Region. The objective is to create an Active Transportation Master Plan that is safe, affordable and sustainable.

The study is getting started! Additional information about the study and consultation process is available at the study website: www.halton.ca/ActiveTransportation
