

Do you have questions about your child's development? You can attend a free ASK clinic in Halton to meet with professionals that will answer your questions and connect you with resources and services in the community.

- Free service
- No appointment necessary
- First come, first served

ASK clinics offer families quick 15-minute consultations with professionals from community agencies in the following areas:

- speech and language
- hearing
- development
- behaviour

A Public Health Nurse will also be available to provide information on nutrition, safety, immunization, parenting, etc.

If your child has an existing developmental concern, referrals should be made to the appropriate community agency by calling 311.

For more information about ASK, visit halton.ca/ask or contact the ASK coordinator by calling 311.
