Last Date of Appeal: July 19, 2022

NOTICE OF ADOPTION

With respect to an Official Plan Amendment Section 17(23) and 22 of the Planning Act

A decision was made by Halton Regional Council to adopt Amendment No. 51, "Milton Education Village Complementary Greenbelt Lands Policy Area" (ROPA 51) to the Halton Regional Official Plan through By-law No. 36-22, enacted and passed on June 15, 2022.

Purpose and Effect of the Official Plan Amendment

The purpose of ROPA 51 is to create a special policy area "Milton Education Village Complementary Greenbelt Lands Policy Area", within the Regional Official Plan for lands within the Agricultural Area, the Greenbelt Plan Protected Countryside, and in part subject to the Regional Natural Heritage System and Greenbelt Natural Heritage System overlay. The special policy area would permit uses directly associated with a stormwater management facility as well as non-intensive uses related to scientific study, education, and research to be permitted subject to specific criteria.

Effect of Written and Oral Submissions on Decision

Submissions regarding ROPA 51 were received and considered as a part of the Region's review process. The submissions and the Region's responses are contained in Attachment #3 of Halton Region Staff Report No. LPS42-22, "Regional Official Plan Amendment No. 51 - "Milton Education Village Complementary Greenbelt Lands Policy Area", available online at the Regional Official Plan Amendments page on Halton.ca.

When and How to File an Appeal

Any appeal to the Ontario Land Tribunal must be filed with Halton Region no later than 20 days from the date of this notice, shown above as the "Last Date of Appeal".

The notice of appeal should be sent to the attention of the Regional Clerk at the address shown below and it must:

- 1) set out the reasons for the appeal,
- 2) set out the specific part or parts of the proposed Official Plan Amendment to which the appeal applies, and
- 3) be accompanied by the fee prescribed under the Ontario Land Tribunal Act, 2021 in the amount prescribed by the Ontario Land Tribunal by cheque to the Minister of Finance, Province of Ontario.

The reasons for the appeal must include an explanation of how the proposed official plan amendment:

- is inconsistent with provincial policy statements issued under subsection 3(1) of the Planning Act, or
- fails to conform with or conflicts with a provincial plan.

Address for Filing a Notice of Appeal

By Mail: Office of the Regional Clerk

Who Can File an Appeal

Only individuals, corporations, or public bodies may appeal a decision of the municipality to the Ontario Land Tribunal. A notice of appeal may not be filed by an unincorporated association or group. However, a notice of appeal may be filed in the name of an individual who is a member of the association or the group on its behalf.

No person or public body shall be added as a party to the hearing of the appeal unless, before the official plan amendment was adopted, the person or public body made oral submissions at a public meeting or written submissions to the council or, in the opinion of the Ontario Land Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

When the Decision is Final

The proposed official plan amendment is exempt from approval by the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing. The decision of the council is final if a notice of appeal is not received on or before the last day for filing a notice of appeal.

Getting Additional Information

Additional information about the amendment and the decision is available for public inspection during regular office hours at the Office of the Regional Clerk at the address provided in this Notice. In addition, information is available online at the Regional Official Plan Amendments page on Halton.ca.
