RE: COVID-19 Vaccine Update 15: Halton residents 80+ can now book COVID-19 vaccine appointments

QUICK FACTS

- Starting today, Halton residents who are 80 years of age and older can book their appointment to receive their COVID-19 vaccine at a Halton Region COVID-19 Vaccination Clinic.
- Clinics are by appointment only (please no walk-ins) and must be booked online through Halton Region's booking system at halton.ca/COVID19vaccines.
- Please do not call clinic locations directly; bookings can only be made through Halton Region.
- Clinic locations are:
 - Gellert Community Centre, 10241 Eighth Line, Georgetown
 - St. Volodymyr Cultural Centre, 1280 Dundas Street, Oakville
 - Compass Point Bible Church, 1500 Kerns Road, Burlington
 - FirstOntario Arts Centre Milton, 1010 Main Street East, Milton
 - Joseph Brant Hospital 1245 Lakeshore Road, Burlington (located at the hospital's Pandemic Response Unit (PRU), which can be accessed through the South Tower Main Entrance off Lakeshore Road)
- Please only call 311 if you are unable to book online to ensure those residents requiring support can be assisted. Eligible residents who are 80 years of age and older can call 311 if they require booking support.
- Halton Region is offering transportation services to and from appointments for residents who require support, free of charge.
- There will be appointments available to book for every resident who is 80 years of age and older during March and April. All appointments are contingent on the availability of vaccine supply.
- These are the initial sites and additional locations may be identified as required.

TO BOOK AN APPOINTMENT, PEOPLE WILL NEED:

- Name and address (including postal code)
- Government issued I.D. (Ontario Health card preferred)
- Home phone number and/or mobile phone number, if applicable
- Email address, if available, for confirmation email

Please report all suspected/confirmed cases of Diseases of Public Health Significance to Public Health immediately by calling 311, 905-825-6000 or toll free at 1-866-442-5866.
