Thank you for submitting the application form for rent-geared-to-income housing in Halton Region.

To apply for Special Priority (SPP) status on the centralized waiting list please mail or drop off your completed SPP application and all copies of required documentation to the address shown above. If incomplete, only your RGI application will be processed.

Please refer to the Document Guide on page 6 for a list of acceptable documentation.

What is Special Priority Status?

The Special Priority Policy (SPP) category for Victims of domestic abuse and Survivors of Human Trafficking allows applicants to move ahead of all other applicants on the Halton Access to Community Housing (HATCH) centralized waiting list. They are ranked among other SPP priority status applicants. Verifiers and housing staff must ensure that inclusion in the SPP category is reserved for those who are eligible under the housing regulations and that all requirements are met.

The intent of Special Priority Policy (SPP) is to help an RGI applicant separate permanently from someone abusive or someone involved in human trafficking. It is given to an applicant who's personal or family's safety is at risk.

The information is collected under the authority of the Housing Services Act, 2011 S.O. 2011, c.6 and is subject to the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, S.O. 1990, c. M.56. The information will be used to determine the applicant's eligibility to be included in the SPP category (unless stated otherwise). To that end the information provided may be cross-referenced with other municipal data pertaining to the applicant.

Who is eligible for Special Priority Status (SPP)?

You may be eligible for Special Priority status if:

- you are eligible for rent-geared-to-income (RGI) assistance and;
- you are currently living with an individual who is abusing you or another person in your household.
- 3 months ago or less you stopped living with an individual who was abusing you or another person in your household. In some circumstances, you may still be considered for SPP if separated longer than 3 months.
- you are a sponsored immigrant, and your sponsor is abusing you or another person in your household.
- you are being trafficked or it has been 3 months or less since the trafficking stopped
